COAL PROSPECTING AREAS.

| | Annual rent for license, per acre. |
|---|---|
| Any person who is desirous of prospecting Crown lands for coal may make application in the prescribed form to the proper Warden for a license to occupy any Crown lands described in the application, and not being of greater area than six hundred and forty acres, for the purpose of searching for coal thereon ... ... ... ... | £0 0 6 |

The license may be renewed by the Minister for another year upon payment of a like sum of sixpence per acre of the land comprised therein and upon proof to the satisfaction of the Minister that the licensee has during the period of the license used reasonable endeavours to search for coal upon the land, and has not used the land for any purpose not hereby authorised.

If during the period of the license or the renewed license the licensee desires so to do he may apply for a lease of any part of the land comprised in the license not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres in extent, and his application shall have precedence over the application of any other person for the same land.

The yearly rent of land leased for the purpose of mining for coal shall, instead of being at the rate of ten shillings per acre, be at the rate of sixpence per acre, and there shall also be reserved in the lease a royalty at the rate of threepence for every ton of coal raised from the land during the first ten years of the term of the lease, and at the rate of sixpence for every ton raised during the remainder of the term.

The times and mode of ascertaining the amount of any royalty so payable and the time for payment thereof shall be prescribed by the lease.

If land leased for the purpose of mining for coal is used for the purpose of mining for any other mineral, rent shall become payable in respect thereof at the rate of ten shillings per acre in addition to the royalty, if any, payable in respect of coal raised therefrom.

(2) Discovers a payable seam of coal at a depth of not less than six hundred feet from the surface, he shall be entitled to a lease of six hundred and forty acres of land, instead of three hundred and twenty acres as hereinbefore provided and the royalty payable in respect of coal raised by the lessee shall in the first-mentioned case as to all coal, and in the second-mentioned case as to all coal raised from a depth of six hundred feet and upwards, be at the rate of one penny for every ton, instead of threepence as hereinbefore provided.

2. The warden may, upon the application of any person or persons the holder or holders of miners' rights, grant a dredging claim for dredging for gold or any other mineral on the foreshore and lands under the ocean adjoining thereto, not exceeding two miles in length along the foreshore and four hundred and forty yards in width.

Existing prospecting areas.

3. 4. Upon application in writing to the warden in that behalf made by the holders of contiguous dredging claims, the warden may consolidate any number of such claims into one consolidated dredging claim, provided that such consolidated dredging claim shall not exceed six miles in length.

A grant of a consolidated dredging claim shall be in lieu of, and represent, and be of the same force and effect as, the several grants of dredging claims theretofore subsisting.

Mode of marking dredging claims.

5. All dredging claims shall be marked off by erecting at both banks of the river, stream, or watercourse, in positions to mark the boundaries, or, in the case of dredging claims on the foreshore, by erecting along such foreshore posts, painted white, not less than nine inches square, standing not less than two feet above the surface, and sunk not less than four feet below the surface of the ground.

Conditions of occupation applicable to dredging claims.

6. Any single or consolidated dredging claim in the bed of a river, stream, or watercourse, that may, under these Regulations, be granted shall be taken and held subject to the condition that any person who may at the time of granting such dredging claim hold any mining tenement on the banks of or in the vicinity of such river, stream, or watercourse, or who may thereafter lawfully take up or acquire any such mining tenement, shall not, in consequence of the granting or holding and working of any such dredging claim, be restrained from discharging the tailings, waste water, or débris from his mining tenement into such river, stream, or watercourse; and the holder of such dredging claim shall have no right of action against any such person for so discharging tailings, water, or débris into such river, stream, or watercourse, anything in these Regulations to the contrary notwithstanding.

Labour conditions applicable to dredging claims.

7. For the period of six months after the grant of a dredging claim the holder shall not be required to employ any men or machinery upon or in connection therewith.

After the expiration of such period of six months, the holder of every such dredging claim shall employ continuously upon such claim not less than three men for every mile or fraction of a mile in length of such claim, or, in the alternative, shall keep continuously employed thereon, and fully manned, machinery of a value of not less than five hundred pounds for every mile or fraction of a mile in length of such claim, unless in any case partial or total exemption from labour conditions has been obtained from the warden: Provided that all applications for exemption shall be subject to so much of the provisions of the seventh Regulation as is not inconsistent with this Regulation.

NOTE.—The amount actually realised bears but a small proportion to the amount sought to be recovered; but it must be borne in mind that in many cases the defendant, on a levy being made, becomes insolvent, and any property seized passes to the Official Trustee for the benefit of the Creditors, and consequently no sale by the Sheriff takes place. Many also of these writs of fieri facias were for large amounts, the suitors holding mortgages over and being in possession of the property seized, and were merely lodged for the purpose of obtaining the Sheriff's title for the conveyance of the interest, the purchase money being nominal.
